

DISCOVER | TRY AN AUDIOBOOK

Supplies:

- Some kind of device that can connect to the internet
- Internet access to download the audiobook (BPL has 24/7 Wi-Fi outside of the building – no password required)
- Your library card number (get a free digital library card on our website: www.burlingtonwa.gov/library)
- Libby or OverDrive app (if using a phone or tablet)

Five reasons to try an audiobook

- Begone, Bookmarks! No need to keep track of bookmarks or pages, start and stop your listening where needed and pick up right where you left off.
- Save on Band-aids! Okay, this might be a larger issue (some of us are just prone to papercuts from life, okay?)—but audiobooks are also here to help.
- Hands-free reading! Set your pace with an audiobook and listen while you work out or let an audiobook distract you while you do chores.
- Remember story time? Whether listening on your own or co-listening with friends or family, audiobooks ARE story time. They will pull you in, and take you back.

SYNC Program: get free audiobooks all summer long

SYNC gives away two complete audiobooks each week - pairs of high interest titles, based on weekly themes. Register for SYNC at www.audiobooksync.com. Here are a few titles they're offering this summer:

Stalking Jack the Ripper

By Kerri Maniscalco

The Music of What Happens

By Bill Konigsberg

Burn Baby Burn

By Meg Medina

Source: <https://www.penguinrandomhouseaudio.com/blog/top-10-reasons-to-listen-to-audiobooks/>